

St George and Sutherland Shire

2024 English Classes Directory

For Beginners, Intermediate and Advanced Learners

Seventh Edition

Acknowledgement

This is a collaborative project between Georges River Council and various community organisations.

We would like to acknowledge the St George Sutherland Shire Employment Training and English Action Network for their contribution towards the completion of this directory.

We thank all community groups within the St George and Sutherland Shire areas for providing information regarding English language classes.

A special thanks to Advance Diversity Services and Gynea Community Aid & Information Service for their input in the review of this edition.

For any updates to the directory please email to mail@georgesriver.nsw.gov.au

About the Directory

This directory aims to provide guidance to individuals wanting to learn or improve their English language skills.

The St George and Sutherland Shire areas cater for beginner to advanced English language learners with a variety of locations, times, and study options.

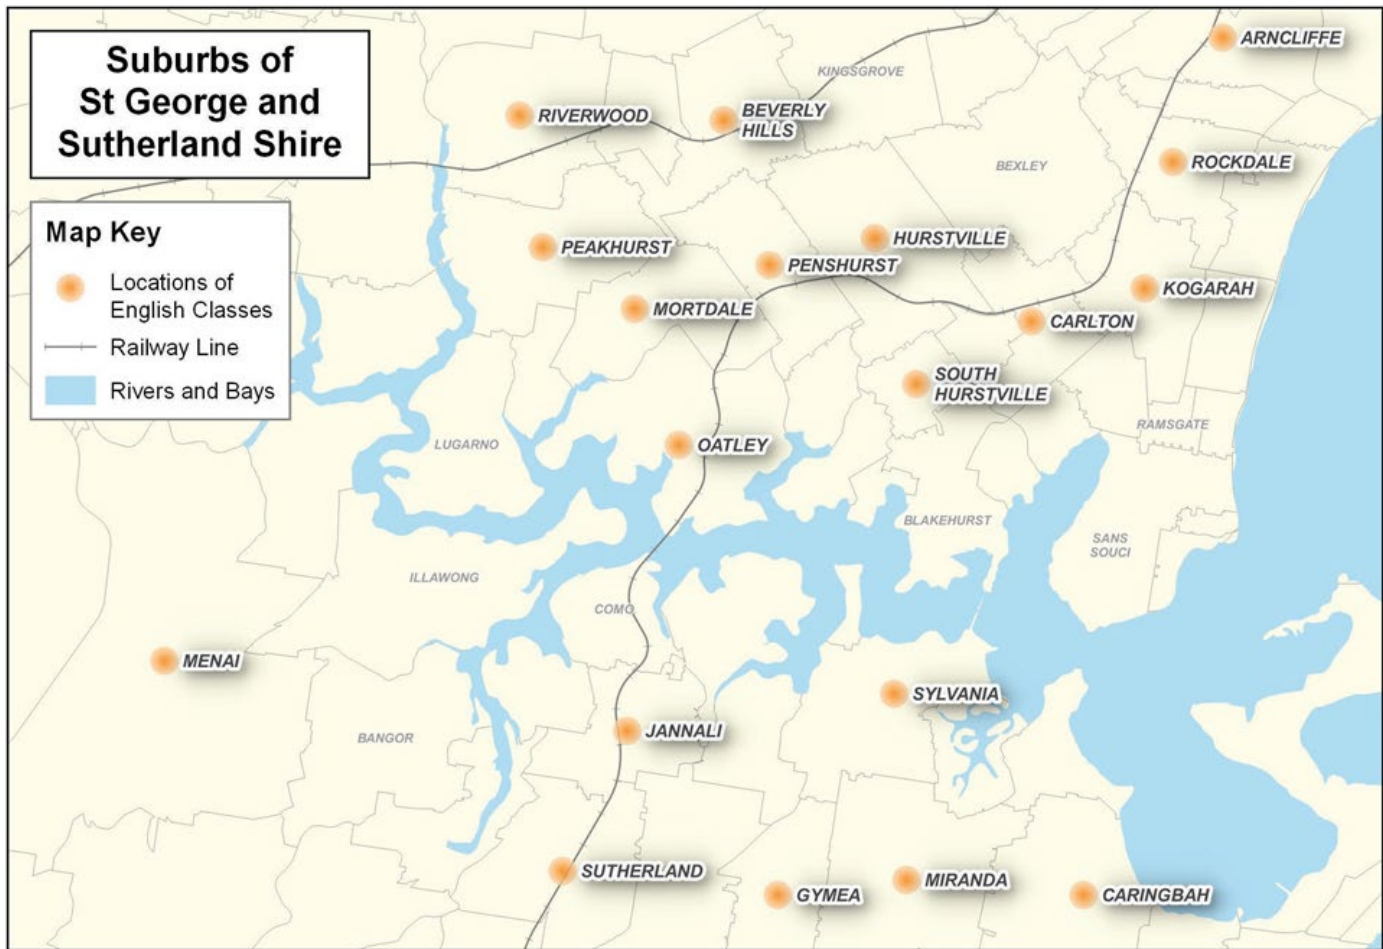

With colleges and community centres as well as online courses, anyone can begin or continue to improve their English language skills for leisure, education, or employment.

You can download a copy of this directory online through www.georgesriver.nsw.gov.au
